Instructions for Paperwork Preparation, Packing Slip, Bill of Lading and Manifest

Paperwork Preparation

If you are an EDI compliant Supplier and receive your purchase orders electronically, you are NOT REQUIRED to include packing slips with your shipments.

EXCEPTION: All Special Order and Direct To Store shipments are required to have a packing list attached to each carton, containing the contents of that carton.

Paperwork Preparation Instructions for Consolidators/LTL/Common Carriers

FEDEX&UPS Ground/FEDEX&UPS Air Shipments

For all Non-EDI shipments, attach a packing slip to the outside of each individual carton. The packing slip should only represent the contents inside that one individual carton. Do not combine items for other cartons. FedEx shipments are not required to prepare a BOL or manifest.

VIA Consolidator - Performance Team

For all Non-EDI shipments, attach one copy of a packing slip to the outside of each carton. The packing slip should only represent the contents inside that one individual carton. Prepare a "packet" of paper to give to the performance team driver. This packet must be clearly labeled "Consolidated Paper." The packet of paper will include a Master BOL, Manifest by DC and Department and Packing Slips. The packing slips must be attached to the correct manifest. One BOL is required per shipment.

VIA Any Other Carrier to include LTL, YRC, FedEx Freight & Dedicated Trailers

For all Non-EDI shipments, attach one copy of a packing slip to the outside of each carton. The packing slip should only represent the contents inside that one individual carton. Prepare a "packet" of paper to attach to the lead carton of the shipment. This packet must be clearly labeled "Consolidated Paper." The packet of paper will include a Master BOL, Manifest by DC and Department and Packing Slips. The packing slips must be attached to the correct manifest. One BOL is required per shipment.

Packing Slip

If you are an EDI compliant Suppiler and receive your purchase orders electronically, you are NOT REQUIRED to include packing slips with your shipments.

Bill of Lading

Bill of Lading Requirement

- 1. The Neiman Marcus Group prefers the use of the Voluntary Interindustry Commerce Standard (VICS) Bill Of Lading. BOL requirements are for Consolidated Shipments. The BOL is the Supplier's verification of what is picked up and delivered.
- 2. Both EDI and Non-EDI Suppliers must create a BOL for consolidated shipments, truck load and LTL shipments. A shipment using a local carrier such as Fedex ground or air does not require a BOL. Bill of Lading should include the following information
 - Ship From Address
 - Ship To Address
 - Unique BOL number
 - Carrier Name & SCAC code

OPERATIONS PORTAL

- Freight Charge Terms

Manifest

The Manifest contains shipment information that includes department, distribution center, purchase orders and carton count.

Manifest Requirements

- 1. The Neiman Marcus Group requires a manifest for shipments that go to our Consolidator.
- 2. Both EDI and Non-EDI Suppliers must create a manifest for shipments that go to our Consolidator. A shipment using a small package carrier such as FedEx Ground or FedEx Express does not require a manifest.
- 3. Manifests should be created by department and then by Distribution Centers according to your individualized routing guide. The routing guide will show the DC to Store splits based on your geographical location.
- 4. Gift with purchase (GWP) and collateral merchandise must be on a separate manifest from regular merchandise.
