

U.S. Government and State Regulations

Last modified: 04/04/12

All parties involved in the importation of goods must be aware of and comply with the laws and regulations of the United States. This includes the vendors and manufacturers that The Neiman Marcus Group, Inc. partners with in foreign countries.

- Begin with a review of the Certifications and Testing Requirements tab.
- Then review the Labeling Requirements tab.
- If you find that your product is subject to U.S. import regulations according to a specific law, refer to the particular act or agency within this section. The Neiman Marcus Group, Inc. vendor requirements, policies, and procedures can be found within each of the listed categories.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection \(CBP\)

Federal Trade Commission \(FTC\)

Fur Labeling Act

U.S. Fish and Wildlife \(FWS\)

U.S. Food and Drug Administration \(FDA\)

U.S. Department of Agriculture \(USDA\)

The Lacey Act

Consumer Product Safety Commission \(CPSC\)

Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act \(CPSIA\)

Environmental Protection Agency \(EPA\)

Formaldehyde Standards Act \(FSA\)

State Regulations

We urge our vendors to review each section as it pertains to the nature of goods manufactured. The governing laws and regulations of the United States, along with those of the individual state governments, are extensive and ever changing.

For this reason, we must emphasize that though the information contained within this section of our operations website was developed to enhance compliance with U.S. regulations and U.S. Customs Border Patrol, it is intended for general purposes only.
